ATTACHMENT A

DEFINITIONS

1. “Arrest” means an Officer’s seizure, detention, or arrest of a person, including but not limited to for the purpose of issuing them a criminal court or C-Summons (“summons”) or Desk Appearance Ticket (“DAT”) or fully processing them for arraignment.
2. “Curfew Orders” means New York City Mayor Bill de Blasio’s Emergency Executive Orders Nos. 117-119, which imposed curfews in New York City between June 1 and June 7, 2020. The Curfew Orders exempted certain categories of workers that were deemed “essential” (“Essential Workers”), including “police officers, peace officers, firefighters, first responders and emergency medical technicians, individuals travelling to and from essential work and performing essential work, people experiencing homelessness and without access to a shelter, and individuals seeking medical treatment or medical supplies.” Each of the Curfew Orders provided: “Failure to comply with this Order shall result in orders to disperse, and any person who knowingly violates the provisions in this Order shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor” under NYC Administrative Code (“AC”) § 3-108. AC § 3-108 contains a knowing intent requirement, as follows: “Any knowing violation of a provision of any emergency measure established pursuant to this chapter shall be a class B misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than three months, or both.”
3. “Kettling,” “kettling tactics” and “encirclement” mean any and all plans, methods, procedures, tactics, strategies, or approaches, by whatever name or characterization, utilized by NYPD to control crowds, address disorderly conduct, and/or effectuate mass arrests and detentions, whether intentional or not, whereby Officers physically surround or otherwise contain members of the public within an area, leaving them few or no routes of unimpeded egress.

4. “Legal Observer” means an individual who attends a public demonstration to observe and document interactions between law enforcement and demonstrators.
5. “Officer” means a member of service or civilian employee of the NYPD, regardless of rank, including but not limited to any and all officers, detectives, sergeants, lieutenants, captains, inspectors, chiefs, and/or deputy commissioners.
6. “Prosecution” means any actual or potential prosecution of a person Arrested related to the Summer 2020 Protests.
7. “Protest-Related Violation or Offense” means an alleged violation of any of the following laws during a demonstration or protest: New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law (“VTL”) Section 1156(a) (Pedestrians in Roadways); New York State Penal Law (“PL”) Section 240.05 (Riot in the Second Degree); PL Section 240.10 (Unlawful Assembly); PL Section 205.30 (Resisting Arrest); PL Section 195.05 (Obstruction of Governmental Administration in the Second Degree); PL Section 240.20(5) (Disorderly Conduct – Blocking Vehicular or Pedestrian Traffic); PL Section 240.20(6) (Disorderly Conduct – Refusing to Obey a Lawful Dispersal Order); New York City Administrative Code (“NYAC”) Section 3-108 (Executive Order Violation); and NYAC Section 10-110(c) (Parading Without a Permit), and any other offenses with which any individual who participated in any racial justice protests between May 28, 2020 and January 31, 2021 was actually Arrested for and/or charged.
8. “Relevant Policies and Procedures” refers to the policies and procedures of the New York City Police Department and the City of New York concerning:
  - a) Officers’ use of tactics or objects to control crowds during a demonstration or protest;

- b) Officers' use of force, including batons or other instruments, during a demonstration or protest;

- d. Supervision of officers during the Summer 2020 Protests;
- e. Officers' use of body worn cameras during the Summer 2020 Protests;
- f. The NYPD's administration of press passes during the Summer 2020 Protests.
- g. Procedures for the implementation of any of the policies identified in Topic 8 above during the Summer 2020 Protests.
- h. Requirement to create, or not create, after action reports (regardless of the name used to identify such reports) detailing the facts and issues concerning the Summer 2020 Protests.

Topic 14: The role of the Legal Bureau in the Summer 2020 Protests, including:

- a. The intended roles of Legal Bureau personnel related to NYPD responses to Demonstrations, including the Summer 2020 Protests, including, but not limited to, giving advice to NYPD decision-makers regarding Arrests, dispersal orders, the use of force, the use of crowd control tactics such as kettling, determining whether a person Arrested at a Demonstration should be released with a summons, desk appearance ticket, or otherwise, determining whether to utilize a Mass Arrest Processing Center, reviewing Arrests for legal sufficiency and/or

- ability to prosecute, and other intended roles regarding arrest processing and/or large-scale or mass arrest processing.
- b. The names of NYPD Legal Bureau personnel who were involved in the NYPD's responses to the Summer 2020 Protests in any way, the dates and times they worked related to the Summer 2020 Protests, the locations to which they were deployed, and the nature and extent of their involvement;
  - c. Whether, and when, any specific guidance was sought concerning any Arrests made at any Summer 2020 Protests by any Incident Commander related to a Protest of any Legal Bureau personnel whether in-person and on the ground in real time, or subsequent to any arrest decision having been made, and, if so, the identities of the Incident Commander(s) and Legal Bureau personnel involved, and the nature of the guidance sought and received;
  - d. Whether any such guidance was identified in any written report regarding any Arrests at any Summer 2020 Protest;
  - e. What training is received by Legal Bureau personnel on the Relevant Policies and Procedures, including, but not limited to, how Legal Bureau personnel are meant to provide guidance concerning Demonstrations, arrests, and probable cause to arrest at Demonstrations, including, but not limited to, probable cause to arrest for a Protest-Related Violation or Offense;
  - f. What directives are provided to Legal Bureau personnel, and to NYPD executive officers, on the interaction between Legal Bureau personnel and the NYPD at protests regarding the establishment of probable cause to effectuate arrests of protesters and others present at protest activity; and
  - g. How such directives are communicated to Legal Bureau personnel and to NYPD executive officers.

Topic 15: Instructions given to NYPD members regarding the Curfew Orders and how to implement and/or enforce the Curfew Orders, and the NYPD's implementation and/or enforcement of, the Curfew Orders, including with respect to essential workers and other curfew-exempt individuals and the need to give dispersal orders and meaningful opportunities to comply before taking enforcement action related to the Curfew Orders;

Topic 16: The role and operations of the NYPD Strategic Response Group in response to any Demonstration that took place in New York City between May 1, 2020 and the present, including but not limited to the Summer 2020 Protests, including, with respect to each such response:

- a. the NYPD's determination to use, and use of, disorder control tactics;
- b. decisions to deploy SRG Units;
- c. operations of and chain of command for the SRG operations; and

d. the distribution and use of SRG equipment.

Topic 17: The initiation, conduct, and outcome of investigations by the NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau and/or the Civilian Complaint Review Board, any local district attorney's office of allegations of misconduct by members of the NYPD during the Summer 2020 Protests.

Topic 18: The disciplinary actions, if any, taken by the City of New York against members of the NYPD for their conduct or failure to act during the Summer 2020 Protests.

Topic 19: The NYPD's and City of New York's policies and practices regarding the monitoring and review of its large-scale incident responses including the Summer 2020 Protests, including, but not limited to, the review of body worn camera and other video footage, documents (e.g., arrest reports, TRIs), and other information sources, as well any after-action review(s) of the Summer 2020 Protests, including any findings and responses of each such review.

Topic 20: The NYPD's and City of New York's response, coordination, and cooperation with investigations by any local district attorney's office, the Civilian Complaint Review Board, the Law Department, or the Department of Investigation of the City of New York into the City's responses to the Summer 2020 Protests, including requests and responses for the production of documents, witnesses, and other information from Defendants.

Topic 21: The NYPD's and City of New York's response to:

- a. the investigation and Preliminary Report by the New York State Office of the Attorney General;
- b. Any decisions by any district attorney to decline to prosecute or dismiss a prosecution related to any of the Arrests made during the Summer 2020 Protests.

Topic 22: Any policy or practice changes considered or implemented by the NYPD and the City of New York relating to or as a result of the Summer 2020 Protests or after-action reviews or investigations arising from the Summer 2020 Protests, including any policy or practice changes considered or implemented in response to New York State Executive Order 203 (<https://www.governor.ny.gov/news/no-203-new-york-state-police-reform-and-reinvention-collaborative>) and any such policy and practice changes referred to in Defendants' opposition to the motions to dismiss in these cases.
